

OMS Energy Technologies (NASDAQ: OMSE) CEO How Meng Hock to Showcase Record Cash Position and Global Growth Strategy at 38th Annual ROTH Conference

March 10, 2026

Singapore, March 10, 2026 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- OMS Energy Technologies Inc. ("OMS" or the "Company") (NASDAQ: OMSE), a growth-oriented manufacturer of surface wellhead systems ("SWS") and oil country tubular goods ("OCTG") for the oil and gas industry, today announced that its CEO, Mr. How Meng Hock, will meet with institutional investors and financial professionals at the 38th Annual ROTH Conference on March 22-24, 2026, in Dana Point, California.

Mr. How will host 1-on-1 investor meetings to discuss the Company's expanding customer base, recent operational milestones, robust $128.7 million cash position, and strategic growth initiatives. With 11 manufacturing facilities across six countries and a long-standing supply contract with Saudi Aramco, OMS is uniquely positioned to capitalize on accelerating demand for oilfield equipment globally. Mr. How, a 30-year industry veteran with deep operational expertise across Asia Pacific and MENA, will highlight how OMS's localized manufacturing advantages and integrated supply chain enable reliable delivery through operational flexibility and resilient procurement networks, even in dynamic global markets.

Conference attendees are encouraged to request meetings with Mr. How through their Roth representatives or via the online conference portal. OMS's updated investor presentation, which details its strong cash position, zero-debt balance sheet and global expansion strategy, is available on the Company's Investor Relations website at ir.omsos.com.
